

Ted Downing's Senate Resolution for the January 29, 2024 Faculty Senate Meeting

The Senate endorses creation of a transparency and accountability mechanism whereby elected faculty College Senators openly report proposed off-budget expenditures that may impact the rest of the university. At-large Senators will deal with all non-college units, including Centers and Institutes. All participating elected Senators will receive Other Professional Compensation (OPC) or release time for this work.